We couldn't have had a better week - so sunny, we managed to see all the sights - Bushmills, the rope bridge, Rathlin Island, Portbradden (St. Groghan's Church is just lovely), Portrush - Portstewart and probably all the bits in between. Obviously not forgetting the amazing Giant's Causeway - such a nice walk along the railway from here and not as far as you'd think!

We can't recommend Sweeney's for food, but The Smuggler's Inn is well worth the extra couple of miles.

The cottage is just perfect, thanks so much, we'll be back soon!

'Wee Bush' ... great 'wee' break, had a few 'wee' walks and a 'wee' bit of sunshine and lotsa wind! The sea was wild but very beautiful.

Had a few 'wee' drinks
and an enormously fantastic break.
Will definitely return for another 'wee' break!
